Did You Know that.....

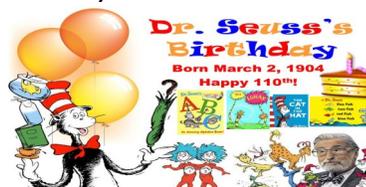

March the 2nd is Dr. Seuss birthday????? Happy birthday, Dr. Seuss! Theodor Seuss Geisel (yes, that's his real name) was born today in 1904. His timeless books were celebrated not only for their inventiveness, but for the messages that they bestowed upon their readers. Dr. Seuss had a lot to say about the world and this would be the perfect time to (for those of you who have not already) introduce him to your child.

Sick Discharge Policy: As a friendly reminder, we ask that your child be kept home with a fever, diarrhea, vomiting or a contagious condition. Also We must send your child home, if he or she has a fever over 100 degrees, if vomiting, has diarrhea or a condition that is known to be contagious. Your child may return to the center after he or she has been out for the next full school day. In some cases, you may also be required to provide a doctor's note before your child can return to school.

Hand Washing Policy: Parents please remember to take the time to wash your child's hands as a part of your drop-off routine in the morning. This is very important because it will help your child learn to practice safe hygiene at a young age.

Pick up a Dr. Seuss book and prepare your self and your child for some great entertainment. Happy, Happy, Birthday Dr. Seuss!!!!

Eat Healthy and Exercise

March is National Nutrition Month!!!

“Eat Right, Your Way, Every Day!” is the theme of national nutrition month this year. An article on nutrition states that “ Kids who fuel up in the morning focus and concentrate better in the classroom and perform better on math, reading and standardized tests. They also have fewer behavior problems and are less likely to be tardy.” Some easy tips on making sure breakfast is a part of your day:

- Set the alarm 10 minutes earlier: Hectic mornings can make it difficult for kids (and parents) to find time for breakfast. Waking up just a few minutes earlier provides time to squeeze in a quick morning meal.
- Dress first, eat second: Kids are more likely to feel hungry once they've had a chance to wake up.

- Make sure you're well stocked: No time to cook? No problem. Quick-fix foods like whole-grain cereal, string cheese, berries, yogurt, and whole-wheat toast, mini bagels and English muffins make grabbing breakfast a cinch.
